

7.46 Describe how humanism led to a revival of classical learning and fostered a new interest in the arts including a balance between intellect and religious faith

Characteristics of Humanism

- Importance of independent thinking and individualism
- Focus on daily activities and lives of people
- Classical teachings from Greece and Rome
- Balancing intellect and religious faith

Teachings of Humanism

- History
- Literature
- Grammar
- Philosophy

