

7.49 Gather relevant information from multiple sources about Henry V, Hundred Years' War, and Joan of Arc

I. Hundred Years' War

- A. 1337-1453 (actually _____)
- B. _____ v. _____
- C. Began as a fight about who would be the _____ king
- D. Continued as fight for _____, control of _____, and over who would _____ France
- E. Mostly _____ in France
- F. Many battles--both sides won some, lost some
- G. Who won in the end?
 - 1. _____
- H. Results:
 - 1. _____ of France: became more of a _____, rather than a group of _____ states
 - 2. Popularity of the English _____
 - 3. Strengthened French _____

II. Henry V

- A. King of England from 1413-1422
- B. First king to actually speak _____ since the Norman invasion in 1066
- C. Responsible for winning several key _____ in France, including Agincourt
- D. Was briefly king of _____
- E. Died in 1422 of _____

III. Joan of Arc

- A. French _____
- B. Heard and saw _____ from God
- C. Convinced the king of _____ to let her help lead an _____
- D. Eventually _____ by the British
- E. Even with no evidence, she was _____ at the stake as a _____