

7.6 Explain the significance of the Qur'an and the Sunnah as the primary sources of Islamic beliefs, practice, and law and their influence in Muslims' daily life

I. Islam

- A. The _____ is Islam's holy _____. It is word-for-word, the words Gabriel told Muhammad to _____
- B. Als is a book of the prophet Muhammad's sayings called the _____ and a book detailing his actions called the _____
- C. Together, these books are the _____ documents for _____
- D. BTW, the Qur'an is written in _____, and many Muslims believe to truly understand it, you must read it in _____

II. The Five Pillars of Islam

- A. Muslims believe in _____ core duties as written in the Qur'an