

Civil War Battle Project

DUE: May , 2018

You will be choosing an important battle from the Civil War and creating a poster that describes your battle's significance. You must sign up for a particular battle; only one battle can be done per class.

Mechanics of the Poster (15 points):

- ☐ Title of Battle with date(s)
- ☐ Correct spelling
- ☐ Visually appealing using color, appropriate size writing for people to be able to read, blocked information, pictures/map
- ☐ Everything is colored (nothing is left in pencil!)

Map of Battle (10 points):

- ☐ Hand-drawn map of the battle
- ☐ Include a key

Important People (40 points):

- ☐ Union side
 - ☐ Name of person
 - ☐ Description of person's importance during your battle (2-4 sentences)
- ☐ Confederate side
 - ☐ Name of person
 - ☐ Description of person's importance during your battle (2-4 sentences)

Battle Write-up (35 points):

- ☐ Write a brief account of the battle (2 paragraphs!!)
- ☐ Describe who was involved
- ☐ Why and where it took place
 - ☐ Location
 - ☐ Landscape of battle
- ☐ What was the result?
 - ☐ How many died? How many were injured?
 - ☐ Winners?
 - ☐ Losers?
 - ☐ Did anyone important make a name for themselves in this battle? Did anyone important die?

Battles to choose from:

Antietam
Atlanta
Baton Rouge
1st Bull Run
2nd Bull Run
Chancellorsville
Chattanooga
Chickamauga
Cold Harbor
Donaldsonville
Fort Donelson
Fort Sumter
Fort Wagner
Fredericksburg
Gettysburg
Hampton Roads
Murfreesboro
New Orleans
Petersburg
Richmond
Shiloh
Spotsylvania
Vicksburg
Wilderness
Wilson's Creek

Use the boxes above as a checklist. Make sure that each of the requirements have been met when you have finished your project. This assignment is worth THREE project grades. This could make or break your grade in my class.

This is your chance to get creative as well. If you want to present this project in a different way that isn't a poster, let me know and we can discuss the other options for the project.

Civil War Battle Project

DUE: May , 2018

You will be choosing an important battle from the Civil War and creating a poster that describes your battle's significance. You must sign up for a particular battle; only one battle can be done per class.

Mechanics of the Poster (15 points):

- ☐ Title of Battle with date(s)
- ☐ Correct spelling
- ☐ Visually appealing using color, appropriate size writing for people to be able to read, blocked information, pictures/map
- ☐ Everything is colored (nothing is left in pencil!)

Map of Battle (10 points):

- ☐ Hand-drawn map of the battle
- ☐ Include a key

Important People (40 points):

- ☐ Union side
 - ☐ Name of person
 - ☐ Description of person's importance during your battle (2-4 sentences)
- ☐ Confederate side
 - ☐ Name of person
 - ☐ Description of person's importance during your battle (2-4 sentences)

Battle Write-up (35 points):

- ☐ Write a brief account of the battle (2 paragraphs!!)
- ☐ Describe who was involved
- ☐ Why and where it took place
 - ☐ Location
 - ☐ Landscape of battle
- ☐ What was the result?
 - ☐ How many died? How many were injured?
 - ☐ Winners?
 - ☐ Losers?
 - ☐ Did anyone important make a name for themselves in this battle? Did anyone important die?

Battles to choose from:

Antietam
Atlanta
Baton Rouge
1st Bull Run
2nd Bull Run
Chancellorsville
Chattanooga
Chickamauga
Cold Harbor
Donaldsonville
Fort Donelson
Fort Sumter
Fort Wagner
Fredericksburg
Gettysburg
Hampton Roads
Murfreesboro
New Orleans
Petersburg
Richmond
Shiloh
Spotsylvania
Vicksburg
Wilderness
Wilson's Creek

Use the boxes above as a checklist. Make sure that each of the requirements have been met when you have finished your project. This assignment is worth THREE project grades. This could make or break your grade in my class.

This is your chance to get creative as well. If you want to present this project in a different way that isn't a poster, let me know and we can discuss the other options for the project.