

Name: _____ Date: _____ Block: _____

Money's Adventure around the Economy

SSEMI1 The student will describe how households, businesses, and governments are interdependent and interact through flows of goods, services, and money.

Directions: You are going to construct a story about money's adventure around the economy describing how the circular flow diagram works in a children's story. You are going to describe the journey that money takes around the economy in the product and resource market. Be sure to include what households give in receive in the product and resources market, what businesses give and receive in the product and resource market, and what the government gives and receives in the product and the resource market.

The role of the government, business, and households are explained describing what each player gives and receives are fully explained in a children's story about moneys adventure around the economy. _____ / 42

At least 1 picture for each page. Should be a total of six pages _____ / 42

Constructed in a booklet, book, comic strip, or story _____ / 6

Creativity and Originality (10) _____ / 10

_____ / 100

Name: _____ Date: _____ Block: _____

Money's Adventure around the Economy

SSEMI1 The student will describe how households, businesses, and governments are interdependent and interact through flows of goods, services, and money.

Directions: You are going to construct a story about money's adventure around the economy describing how the circular flow diagram works in a children's story. You are going to describe the journey that money takes around the economy in the product and resource market. Be sure to include what households give in receive in the product and resources market, what businesses give and receive in the product and resource market, and what the government gives and receives in the product and the resource market.

The role of the government, business, and households are explained describing what each player gives and receives are fully explained in a children's story about moneys adventure around the economy. _____ / 42

At least 1 picture for each page. Should be a total of six pages _____ / 42

Constructed in a booklet, book, comic strip, or story _____ / 6

Creativity and Originality (10) _____ / 10

_____ / 100