Islamic Trade Routes

Standard: SSWH5 The student will trace the origins and expansion of the Islamic World between 600 CE and 1300CE.

b. Identify the Muslim trade routes to India, China, Europe, and Africa and assess the economic impact of this trade.

Use the Muslim Trade Routes document on the Schoology page to complete this assignment. You will act as a Muslim trader moving from the Middle East to India, China, Europe, OR Africa. You will write three letters home OR three journal entries about your travels. In your writings, include the terrain (physical features) from your trip, the type of people you met, and the goods that you sold or traded. Keep these writings in first person; you are the trader. Using the map below, map out the route that you are taking.
