

Unit 4: Vocabulary

- Reunification
- Dynasty
- Grand Canal
- Civil Service Exam
- Confucianism
- Kinship
- Hierarchy
- Buddhism
- Taoism
- Morality
- Neo-Confucianism
- Silk Road
- Terrace farming
- Porcelain
- Mongol
- Genghis Khan
- Golden Horde
- Kublai Khan
- Isolationism
- Great Wall
- Forbidden City

Unit 4: Vocabulary

- Reunification: when a divided territory becomes one again
- Dynasty: line of rulers passed from parent to child
- Grand Canal: made to connect poor farmers with water for agriculture; longest artificial river in the world
- Civil Service Exam: tests created to determine if one can work for the government
- Confucianism: following the teachings of Confucius and the idea of harmony in relationships
- Kinship: family relations

Unit 4: Vocabulary

- Hierarchy: system of organization where some people are ranked higher than others
- Buddhism: following the teachings of Buddha towards enlightenment
- Taoism: Chinese tradition of living in harmony
- Morality: understanding the differences between right and wrong
- Neo-Confucianism: belief based on Confucianism that the world could be understood with human reasoning

Unit 4: Vocabulary

- Silk Road: trade route that connected Europe, Africa, Middle East, and China
- Terrace farming: farming system where steps are created into the side of a hill or mountain
- Porcelain: white ceramic material used to create vases, plates, and bowls
- Mongol: person coming from Mongolia, just north of China
- Genghis Khan: military leader of the Mongolian Empire

Unit 4: Vocabulary

- Golden Horde: name used by Europeans to describe the Mongol army
- Kublai Khan: grandson of Genghis Khan who took control of China and moved the capital to modern day Beijing
- Isolationism: the policy of being closed off to other countries
- Great Wall: built by many dynasties; was created to protect China from the Mongols
- Forbidden City: palace complex built for the rulers of China